6-Year Old 'Peace Apostle' Starts New Life in U. S.

NEW YORK CITY — A little girl from Japan, whose father hopes she will some day become "an apostle of international friendship," began a new life last week in the home of New York attorney Murray Sprung.

Tokiko Matsudaira, 6, the only child of Koto Matsudaira of the Japan Foreign office will live with Mr. and Mrs. Sprung and their two children, John, 10, and Margaret, a freshman at Vassar, at their home on West Eighty-Sixth Street.

Mr. Matsudaira, working with the Foreign office on the peace treaty, was secretary in the Japanese Embassy, in Washington at the time of Pearl Harbor.

It was his idea that little Tokiko should have a typical American upbringing. Mr. Matsudaira wanted his daughter to learn American ways and ideas and become "capable of contributing toward international friendship" and learn to defend "peace against aggression."

She will enrol in the first grade in public school and will also take lessons at the Buddhist Church so that she will not lose touch with her native tongue.

After becoming acquainted with the family, Tokiko will go to a summer camp.

Murray Spring who met Tokiko's father when he was in Japan on judicial business, said, "We hope to train Tokiko so she can go through public school and high school here.

"Of course you can't plan a child's life too far ahead, but we hope she'll stay with us for a long time."

Meanwhile, the Sprung's neighbours deluged the little girl from Japan with gifts welcoming her to the United States.

Long way from St. Louis

In a big city like Toronto one can exist for years without once seeing old friends and classmates. But the other night we were sitting in a local bistro listening to Roy Eldridge blowing some trumpet — there being nothing better to do on a hot, humid summer night—when I was very pleasantly shocked to meet one of my classmates. I hadn't seen him since I finished high school three years ago.

Since that time this likeable Negro friend of mine had been going to college near the Mason-Dixon line in St. Louis, majoring in sociology.

We got into a long conversation about the Deep South and the Negro and Jim Crow. I always think of the conditions down there as being pretty bad. But he said to me at the end:

"Jim Crow conditions are slowly but gradually disappearing down South. In our lifetime, we'll probably see the end of Jim Crow buses, restaurants, schools and things like that.

"What's making this change is the educating of the people—both white and coloured—so that the next generation of whites will have no inbred, inborn bias of the coloured".

His hopeful note was pretty amazing to me since I think that the Jim Crow conditions down south make a mockery and hollow joke of the tenets of democracy that is so rosily and glowingly painted by bald-pated, big-paunched baby-kissing politicians.

About Willie McGee

We also discussed at length the Willie McGee Case which seemed to have been hushed up by most of the papers around here. The Willie McGee episode is where a Negro was sent to the electric chair on a conviction of assault. But the whole point on which so many nasty words were exchanged by all parties involved was that this was the first time in the history of the state that a [illegible] had been sentenced to death on such a charge. McGee happened to be a Negro.

My friend argued that if the [illegible] press had not raised [illegible] over the affair, [illegible] have escaped with a [illegible]. He said that the state [illegible] feared to lose face [illegible] charges, there[illegible] execution. Whatever the [illegible] outcome gave lots [illegible] Communist propa-

Six Niseis Return To Canadian Homes

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif. — Six Canadian Niseis were among the passengers who disembarked here from the American President Lines, S.S. President Cleveland on June 19 amidst a strike which was tying up shipping on the west coast.

Niseis en route home to Canada were:

Haruo Ikeda, Shugo Morishige, Shigeo Morizawa, Akira Motoike, Masaharu Mukai and Shogo Nakai.

350 at Southern Ontario Outing

LONDON, Ont. With the sun blazing down from a cloudless sky to make it one of the hottest days yet of the year, the first annual joint London-St. Thomas and Kent JCCA picnic was held at the Chatham YMCA camp near Morpeth on Sunday, June 17.

At this camp site located on the shores of Lake Erie which reminded one of Point Grey in Vancouver, over 350 picnickers gathered for a day of fun. Four buses and numerous private cars from Detroit, Mich., Kitchener, Windsor, Hamilton, Ingersoll, Chatham, St. Thomas and London brought the picnickers together. There was no let-up in activities from the moment of arrival until their departure.

Many took advantage of the unusually torrid weather to climb down the 182 steps to swim in the still cool waters of Lake Erie while others with less ambition joined in the fine sports program arranged by the picnic committee and came away happy with the prizes they won.

As a part of the afternoon sports program, the first of a five-game intercity series was played in which London was beaten by Chatham 16-10. With the picnic a success, both socially and financially, they are looking forward to next year's picnic.

U.S. Nisei Is High School Principal In Arkansas

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. — Paul Makabe of Damascus, Ark., a former resident of Loomis, Calif., is probably the first Nisei to be named principal of a high school in the continental United States.

He was elected principal of [illegible] high school, following his graduation from Arkansas State Teachers College at Conway recently.

Paul Makabe was one of the first Nisei to volunteer for the Army from Placer County after Pearl Harbor. He received his military training at Camp Robinson, Ark., and served overseas in France, Belgium and Germany during World War II.

At Arkansas State he was one of the outstanding students in the school. He is married and the Makabes have three children, each of whom received the "Baby of Arts" degree at the time the father received his bachelor of arts degree. ASTC is believed to be the only school which gives children of its graduates such honorary degrees.

Fishermen Un. Reaffirms No Discrimination Policy

VANCOUVER — The United Fishermen and Allied Workers' Union (UFAWU) reaffirmed its stand against racial discrimination in any form, by either the members of the Union or by the Companies on the fishing grounds or at processing plants, in a letter sent to the canneries by the Union.

Discrimination in question was that directed against Japanese Canadian fishermen for copies of the resolution passed at this year's Union convention which acknowledged acts of discrimination against these fishermen in 1950 and which condemned these same acts, were enclosed in the letter.

The full resolution passed by the convention and cited in the letter, reads as follows:

Whereas: Reports from the fishing grounds during the 1950 season indicate that some discrimination had been practiced against Japanese Canadians, members of our Union;

And whereas: At both Rivers Inlet and the Naas, Japanese members were compelled to seek other camps due to the refusal of white fishermen to share the net rack float;

And whereas: Some companies have contributed to this discriminatory sentiment by providing separate net racks for Japanese at some camps even when no demand for same had been made by white fishermen;

Therefore be it resolved: That this convention goes on record as condemning any form of racial discrimination between its members either on the fishing grounds or at the processing plants;

And be it further resolved: That where any form of discrimination between Union members becomes evident, the Local in whose jurisdiction it occurs shall immediately oppose it and inform Headquarters of the fact and if it occurs at a camp on the grounds, delegates shall take like action to the extent of laying charges as provided in the Constitution;

And be it finally resolved: That the operators be informed our constitution does not tolerate racial discrimination and that they be asked to cooperate with the Union in seeing that no separate racks or floats be established on a race basis."

U.S. Nisei Take 27 Korea Casualty in Week

WASHINGTON, D. C. — The longest list of Nisei casualties in the Korean war ever recorded in one week was issued last week by the Department of Defense. The list contained the names of 27 Niseis.

Five Niseis were reported killed in action, one dead of wounds, seven missing in action, one injured and 13 wounded. Hawaiian Niseis took the brunt of the casualties with all but three of the 27 reported as being from Hawaii.

Report Excellent Fishing, Strike Threatens Tie-Up

STEVESTON, B. C. — The money fish, sockeye salmon, is now being hunted in all the fishing areas with the exception of the Fraser River. That district will open on July 2.

With a large increase of Japanese Canadian fishermen operating in coastal waters over last year, prospects so far seem favorable. Very good catches are being reported from Barkley Sound off the west coast of Vancouver Island. The season here opened in the first part of June. Similar reports are in from the northern B.C. areas around the Skeena and Naas Rivers where the season began on June 17.

Rivers Inlet and Smith Inlet were given the go-ahead on June 24.

Meanwhile negotiations are being continued here to fix the prices. Some quarters feel it will be settled with a compromise on both sides however there are others who see a deadlock and a strike might develop.

Says Mac. Thought Evacuation Was Silly

SAN FRANCISCO — Gen. Douglas MacArthur thought the West Coast evacuation of 115,000 persons of Japanese ancestry in 1942 was "silly," his chief intelligence officer in the Pacific war and in the occupation of Japan, Maj. Gen. Charles A. Willoughby, declared here recently.

"When I heard about the 1942 evacuation of Japanese from the West Coast, I said it was 'silly'," Gen. Willoughby declared. "Gen. MacArthur thought so too."

Gen. Willoughby said that he first asked for Nisei GI interpreters [illegible] in 1942 and that Washington was "shocked" at his request.

"These men went [illegible] with the first wave on many occasions, many died long before the 442nd went into action."

UNION FIRM AGAINST RACIAL DISCRIMINATION

That there are instances of individual acts of discrimination against Japanese Canadian fishermen who were able to return to the B.C. fishing industry only since 1949, are borne out by the resolution passed by the Fishermen's Union this year reiterating its policy against racial persecution. The resolution cited specific acts of discrimination against Japanese Canadians practiced by some fishermen and warned against their recurrences.

The Union also sent a letter to all cannery operators to avoid any practices which may tend to segregate the fishermen into racial groups and thus cause difficulties amongst them.

During the past two years there have been local incidents in which some hostility was directed against Japanese Canadians. However in each instance in which Union action was needed, the Union has held to its no discrimination policy making it clear that it does not tolerate racial strife among its members.

This continued stand of the Union is reflecting creditably on the Union in the whole-heartedness with which Japanese Canadians are becoming its members. On the other hand it should be remembered too that the Japanese Canadian fishermen are sharing their full responsibility as Union members. It is this all-round co-operation that is proving to be a boon for those concerned.

But he gave me the impression that things down South were turning a little better for the Negro although what he said seemed to me to be filled with liberal chunks of hopeful idealism.

Obviously this question of hate for people of other races can best be solved by education —the right kind of course. Not the kind where the Nazis preached anti-Semitism and where some whites are brought up with the idea that Negros and other minorities are inferior people.

"No more white bands!"

The same Eldridge we were listening to at the moment once stated in Downbeat Magazine's recent story, "I'll Never Play In a White Band Again," and went on to list the insults and injuries he had received because of his dark skin while playing with Artie Shaw, Gene Krupa and other white bands.

And, even down ... so long ago, Oscar Peterson ... happens to be my favorite ... pianist, was refused a haircut in a barbershop. Of course the city fathers passed a law forbidding discriminations in barbershops. But I think there'll always be

Nisei Little Theatre in Los Angeles

By MARY OYAMA

Early in 1950, under the direction of Hirotaka Okubo, Nisei drama enthusiasts and sympathetic Caucasians organized the Nisei Experimental group with the cooperation of the L.A. City college drama department and interested members of the Orchard Gables Repertory theatre. For their initial presentation they selected Nisei writer Hiroshi Kashiwagi's original one-act play "The Plums Can Wait," a tale of conflict between two Nisei brothers on a northern California farm; and cast the parts inter-racially.

"Mr. White" the boss, was enacted by Leo Schrier, the Nisei characters by Nisei players, etc. As a further note of authenticity to their performances, the Caucasian and Nisei characters spoke in English while the Issei mother of the play, "Mrs. Wada" spoke in Japanese. Presented with central staging in the modest confines of the Miyako Hotel's Conference room, the Nisei blue-jeaned tee-shirted "brothers," the Old Hakujin Boss, the zori-slippered Issei mother, all appeared convincingly genuine.

Another unique feature of the NEG's fall debut was the interesting contrast provided by two different presentations of the same play by two separate casts, each under a different director—one a Nisei and the other a Caucasian; providing rather fascinating "Oriental" and "Occidental" interpretations. Both versions were thought-provoking, each with its strong and weak points, contrasting studies of mood, timing, pacing, Symbolism. In the opinion of the inter-racial audience, the Nisei directed version seemed to have a slight edge on authenticity, though "both interpretations were good".

A novel note in the Nisei interpretation was the introduction of Japanese stagecraft technique by the use of traditional wooden blocks for sound effects in heightening the emotional or dramatic climax of the scene, and the plaintive melancholy tones of a shakuhachi (Japanese bamboo flute) setting the mood in the prelude and denouement.

Now for the story, briefly told: "The Plums Can Wait" finds a family of a widowed Issei mother and her two sons Tom and George in a "labor cabin," one evening in June, quarreling over their respective approaches to a sudden crisis in their drab, monotonous existence on a farm. Tom the "idle dreamer" prefers to quit their grubbing mode of life by striking out for the unknown, while George the conscientious filial son is determined that the family remain despite the problem precipitated by the latter's fight with the hakujin boss's wife.

Overworked, nerve-touched George, had unpremeditatedly cursed her when she came meddling into the shed, and had been dismissed on the spot; but Mr. White cannot afford the loss of his "good boy" and best worker for the harvest is at its peak with fruit ready to rot on the bough. He comes with an apology for his wife, an offer to George of a "promotion to foreman, plus a five-cent-an-hour raise" which Tom derides after the old man's departure as "a measly bribe!" With uncensored curses and threats their quarrel flares to a climax while their usually stoic mother suddenly breaks down, overwhelmed by the loss of her precarious but familiar security and Tom's pending departure.

"I'm going to get out of here—".

"Tomio, Tomio ——," she cries, "Mama no koto kangaite minasai." (Tom, Tom, think of your mother. Put yourself in my place.) So in the end, Tom remains. Hopelessly resigned in one version and stubbornly hopeful in the other; or at least, such was our interpretation. A simple but quite realistic story.

Now the acting was not perfect, for the players with the exception of one, were not professionals, but Hiro Okubo and Ted Samuels did well with what material they had, and Miki Fujimoto comported herself quite admirably. Also the inter-racial cast, the Issei-Nisei cooperation as evinced by the participation of professional Issei musician, the flute-player, and the East-West synthesis of stage-craft was something to see. We felt that the group had definite ideas about the way it wants to go. Despite the usual lack of money or wider support from the community, the NEG is continuing it's interesting experiments this year tackling a series of Kyogen plays in addition to workshop studies of American and European plays.

The Limit Is 200

No matter how much Japanese we speak or know, it's surprising the number of common everyday objects or words for which we do not know the Japanese equivalent. In some cases, there seems to be no Japanese word for it and the English is accepted.

Cup, banana, ink, radio, tunnel are examples of words which are in use in Japanese as they are. There are almost always things which are foreign to Japan. Another such word is the French word pan which the Japanese have adopted for bread or bread product.

Now to test your knowledge of Japanese.

A pencil is enpitsu, fountain pen is mannenhitsu, but what is the common "peg"? (We don't know, either).

If you can get three out of four amongst the following then you really know your Japanese. (1) knife (2) butter (bata not accepted) (3) wrist (4) chair.

What is the Japanese for green color? You say "aoi". Now what's blue? "aoi" again? The Japanese say the grass is "aoi" and the sky is "aoi". We looked it up and found that aoi is blue while green is "midori". That one fooled us.

Anyway, answers to the above are (1) hocho (2) gyuraku (3) tekubi (4) isu.

Tor. Community Picnic All Set

With all the details ironed out by the Toronto JCCA, the date for the Second Annual Community Picnic at the Tarmola Grounds has finally drawn near and it only remains for the weather, the most important factor, to be reasonable to make the July 1 affair ideal for the Nisei and Issei in Toronto.

One of the features of the program will be a weight-lifting and body-building demonstration by Mack Miyashita, well-known Nisei body-builder. Other events will be races, novelty and otherwise, and games such as bingo. The nearby stream can afford swimming and the pavilion will be available for dancing in the evening. Every person is entitled to refreshments and the fukubiki.

Tickets can be bought from members of the Toronto JCCA executive or The New Canadian office. They are sold at $1.25 for adults and 75c for children which includes bus and ground fares. Ground tickets at 50c for adults and 25c for children for those going by private cars can be bought at the Tarmola entrance. Buses will leave from 9 to 11 a.m., every 20 minutes, from outside the JCCA office, 61 College St., near Bay.

In the event of unfavorable weather, the picnic will be held on the following day, July 2. If the weather is doubtful, inquiries can be made by phoning the JCCA office, PL 1253.

Negro Wins Highest U.S. Award for Valor

WASHINGTON — Pfc. William Thompson, a 22-year-old New York Negro, was posthumously awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor, the highest U.S. honor for valor.

He won the medal as a result of delaying action in Korea last August in which he was killed. Deliberately disregarding orders to withdraw, he remained to hold up the enemy while his comrades made good their escape.

He is the first of his race to win the award since the Spanish American War.

以来靜子ちゃんは毎日附近の農家の野良仕事を手傳つて米や野菜をもらい、幼い弟妹を養つていた。村役場でも子供たちに一日一升四合の米と毎月みそ一貫目、醤油一升を支給したがコドモたちの生活は普通の御飯は朝だけで、晝と夜はカユ、副食物はほとんどなく、夜はワラくずにもぐりこんで寢ていた。昨秋子供たちの様子をきいた同村醫師高橋清孝さん(二九)が小屋を訪ねた時、カボチャを生かじりしている子供たちの不潔な暮しに驚き、子供の診療や生活保護法の適用を役場に頼むなどの面倒をみて來たが、年下の兩兒が極度の榮養不良から日毎にヤセ細り、反對に腹がハレ上つてこのまゝでは命が危い状態なので、高橋さんは煮え切らぬ役場の處置にしびれを切らし昨三十一日仙臺の兒童相談所に善處方を持ち込んだ。

同夜兒童相談所の筑前甚七、早坂ことさんの二人がかけつけ、死の一歩手前であつた幸子ちゃん、とし子ちゃんの二人を仙臺國立病院に入院させまた殘るコドモたちを保護施設に入れる手續をとつた。

移轉日記(一)

真夜中ごろだつたであろうか、雷鳴がひとしきりとどろくと、間もなくドレャ降りとなつたとみえて、はげしい雨脚が窓ガラスをたたくのを遠く聞きながら、この雨では朝の引ッ越しは大變なことになつた、日延でもしようかなあ、と、うすうす考えたりしているうちに、ぐつすり寢入つてしまつた、まばゆい朝の太陽が窓からさし込んで眼をさました、空模様をみると快晴ではないが、まず雨降りにはならない天候のようで、ほつと安堵した。

家財道具をつみかさねたトラックの、ドライバーの隣りに乘つて移轉先へ疾走しながら、「さて、どんなデストレクト(區域)かなあ、われわれを隣人たちはどう迎えてくれるだろうか」ということが不安心であつた。

べつだん、氣に病むほどにはそのことに心配はしなかつたが、しかし「住み心地よい區域であればよいが……」と念じないわけにはいられなかつた。

まだ冷たい雨が降つていた四月のある日、一度きりしか見たことのないその家のある道路を、ザイ、ザイとトラックに揺られて通ると、いつの間にか青々と街路樹が道も狹しと茂つて、ここだつたのかなあ」とおどろくほどに見違え變つていた。荷物を運び入れるあいだ、あちこちと隣家に眼をくばつて何かの氣配をさぐる氣持ちでいた。

手傳いにきてくれた兄と私も、重いものを持ち運んでは大きく息をきらした。いつの間にきたのか七、八名の白人の子供たちが、あつちに行つたり、こつちに廻つたりして見物している、ときには狹い通路をふさいで平氣なので、「どいた、どいた!!」と心の中でドナリながら、「エキスキュース・ミー」などと丁寧な斷りをいつたりして、ともかく全部の家具を家に運んでしまい、やれ、やれとチェアーに腰をおろして休息していると、ドン、ドンと裏口のドアをノックするものがあつた。

本紙で度々報じている六十五歳から六十九歳までの新老年ペンション（老年扶助法案と稱する）はいよいよ來年一月から實施確實とみられるに至つた。即ちオタワ議會では去る土曜日右の「老年扶助法案」に第三讀會を與えたのでこの立法化は確定したも同樣となつた。夏休みの休會明け議會では七十歳以上の老年者に對する無條件ペンション改正法案が提出される筈である。「老年扶助法」は何れの反對黨からも法案の内容をもつと擴大せよという以外には反對はなく第三讀會を通過したがマーチン厚生相は次の通り述べている。

雑録

鳴月生

青葉の色ふかむ

新緑から深緑へ！一と雨あるごとに樹々の葉色が濃くなつて行く。眞夏が近ずいてくる。

晩香坡では、一年のうちでいつがいちばん氣持がよかつたかしら、もう忘れてしまつたような氣がするが、やつぱり春だつたろうか、それとも晩夏の頃だつたであろうか。東部カナダでは、初夏の候ともいうべき五月から六月にかけて、木の葉が青みを増して行く頃が一ばん好いような氣がする。暑さも程よい。トロントではあんまり見かけないがアカシア（これは通稱だそうだが）の花が、甘ずつぱいような濃艶な香氣を發する。多くの花もこの頃に咲く。

けれども、それらは一と時のことである。花よりも實、いや花よりも葉である。夏の陽光を受けて木木が生生躍動の營みをする、この姿にこそ一段の生氣を感ずるような氣がする。青葉の魅力というのでもあろうか。

青葉は魅力だけではない。實に國土を守る寶である。總移動のとき、晩香坡を出た日本人がビーシー州の山奥に移り、[illegible]投稿[illegible]「樹海」と[illegible]言葉が使われた。高原から望むと、緑の海原にも似た森林の壯觀を形容した言葉であろう。晩香坡島のナナイモからポートアルバーニへ行く山越えの道、峠上から見た樹林のほかに「樹海」を知らない私であるが、カナダの北部には到るところに、この「樹海」がひろがつていることであろう。森林は材木を供給するばかりではない。人間をふくめて地上の生物すべて[illegible]恩惠を蒙つて[illegible]

宮城縣では「青葉十字」と[illegible]運動が行われて[illegible]は宮城縣の縣花、縣樹「青葉」に愛護精神をあらわす「十字」を結んで、郷土に對する博愛をあらわしたもので、その目的は、水害のない郷土建設を目指し、總合的治山治水開發事業を推進することで、機關紙として「青葉十字」を出している。

この運動に對してビー・シー州クローナにいる宮城縣出身の伊藤直、沼田篤太郎、及川彦兵衛、菊地嘉右衛門、千葉幸一、小出末吉、菅野榮の七氏が、汗の結晶たる援助金を集めて送つたことが、最近の「青葉十字」紙のトップに掲載されている。無謀な戰爭で荒らされてしまつた郷土の山を、再び青青とさせることは、郷土愛の現われの一端である。

「卅八度線で休戰てっ兵せよ」

マリク・ソ連代表、朝鮮和平を提案

【ニューヨーク發】ヤコブ・マリク・ソ連國連代表は去る土曜國連の「平和の代價は?」と題するラヂオ放送で朝鮮における國連軍と共產軍は休戰會議を行い、双方軍隊を卅八度線から撤退せよと朝鮮和平案を提唱した、

十五分にわたつたこのラヂオ放送でマリク代表は「ソ連と英米佛各國の關係が不和な主因は北太西洋防衛協定の成立にある」と述べ、この同盟によつて米國は海外に軍事基地を設け、西部ドイツを再軍備し日本軍部再起をはかるもので明らかに西部國家群の侵略政策を示すものだと散々攻撃、終りにのぞんで朝鮮戰爭解決の途として「ソ連はまずその第一手段として交戰國間に停戰の交渉を行い、双方とも卅八度線から撤兵することを條件として休戰すべきである」と述べ、斯る手段が取り得るだろうか?、私は朝鮮戰爭の終結を心の底から望むならば出來得ると思う、そしてそのために支拂う代價は決して大きいとは思わないと結んだ

各國の反響

カナダは靜觀

マリク代表の「朝鮮休戰」提唱放送に關する各國政府筋の反響は大体次の通りである

△米國―官界ではマリク代表の提唱に就て相當悲觀的見方をしている、しかしソ連がこれに誠意をみせるなら乘氣になろう

△英佛―米國よりはるかに熱心で、ソ連聲明の意味を吟味しようとする態度でありそれぞれ駐米大使に命じて米國の反響を傳えるよう本國政府が訓令している

△カナダ―オタワ政府外務省ではソ連の申出は大へん興味あるものだが、ソ連聲明中に「掛け引」がないかど常にさがすものだと述べている

△濠洲　前國連本會議々長エバット博士は「ソ連の申出は國連で直ちに注意を用ひねばならぬ」と述べている

休戰には反對

在日鮮人

【東京發】共同通信が廿五日報じるところによると約二千五百名の在日南鮮人は集會で卅八度線における如何なる休戰にも反對する決議を行つた、南鮮人は朝鮮統一を要請するメッセージを國連、ツルーマン大統領およびリッジウェー大將に送達することになつた。廿四日夜卅七名の朝鮮人と日本人が反戰ビラをまいたため檢束された、東京都下の朝鮮人居住區域には北鮮共產旗が揭げられていた

中共、マリクに同意

北京放送「米國よ苦杯なめたか」

【東京發】北京ラジオは廿五日マリク・ソ連代表の朝鮮和平提案について中共紙「人民日報」の社説を放送、中共はソ連の和平提唱に全く同意であると述べた。北京ラジオは朝鮮戰爭が始つて六月廿五日で滿一カ年、まだ〳〵戰爭は續くであろうと中國民に警告したのち、マリク代表が提唱している朝鮮和平案は米國が充分苦杯をなめ、もう和平しようではないかという下心があるものかどうかをタメすものでもあり、もし米國がその氣持なら中共やソ連が度々要請した通り公正妥當な平和的解決に沿つてこれを行えばよかろう、さもなければ中共軍は國連軍が全滅するまで戰うだけであると放送した

『眞の和平』を支持

ツールマン大統領がソ連に答う

【テネシー州ツラホマ發】ツルーマン大統領は當地に飛來、空軍機械技術開發センター開幕式に臨み、世界各國がさわぎ立てているソ連の朝鮮和平案につき「米國は朝鮮の侵略を完全に防ぎ平和と保障を回復する解決には參加する準備がある」と述べると共に、ソ連に對し「ソ連が勝つ見込みのない戰爭に直面するような自由國家群の攻撃を止した方がよいであろう」と論難した

【ニューヨーク發】駐米朝鮮大使ユー・チャン・ヤング博士は廿九日「朝鮮統一をふくまない一切の停戰を拒否する」と發表、南鮮大統領李承晩も同様意見を主張している

面くらわす混血兒

日本娘と黑人米兵の愛の結晶?

晩香坡サン紙婦人記者ベニー・ワイズ嬢はかねて日本訪問中であるが最近東京市中を大手振つてカッポする日本娘と米兵夫婦を見て次の通り報じている

すでに三千五百名のアメリカ兵が日本娘と結婚している、これらのミックス夫婦を自慢らしく混血兒を抱いて街を歩いたり、買物をしたりしている風景はザラに見うけるもので、誰一人としてこの國際結婚にマユをひそめる者もない

それどころか、私がカナダ軍の一將校にこの事を話して意見をきくと、彼はハッキリと、獨身の男であつたら、日本娘と結婚しないというのはバカな男に違いないと返事した

しかし、私自身にしても、[illegible]たビックリしてしまつた[illegible]日まだわずかにも拘らず日本娘にホレてしまつたのだから無理もないことかも知れない

彼女たちはいつもニコ〳〵している、彼女らの夫君はたとえ[illegible]晩中歸宅しなかつても決して[illegible]言事や文句を聞かないであろう、女[illegible]下のアメリカ男性にとつて日本はパラダイスであろう、三千五百名のジー・アイが日本娘と結婚したら約半數は黑人米兵と結婚になつている、そして彼等の愛の結晶のつまる眼が細くつり上り頭髪が黑くちぢれている混血の赤ん坊を見ると、[illegible]面くらわずにはいられない、[illegible]兵たちが彼女たちを連れて歸國し、ママに會わせる時の先の事まで考えていない

[illegible]私は何にもない、[illegible]本當のカナダ兵が朝鮮から日本に來て[illegible]許されるが、彼等が物珍らしい日本の乙女たちに接して結婚したいと願つても許されない、たとえ規則を破つて日本流で結婚したところでカナダはそれを認めないし、まだ日本婦人の入國も許さぬ

日本でいまなお人身賣買行わる

【東京發】民主化したはずの日本にいまなお人身賣買が大ぴらに行われているというので國連人身賣買對策委員會の注目の的となつている、一九五〇年前半期に於て日本政府は身賣ブローカー百二十七名を逮捕した、東京都および近縣では昨年三百四十四件の人身賣買を調査したが、主な原因は貧困からくるものだといわれるが、兒童一人につき十四弗、娘だと最高百四十弗ぐらいで賣買されるという

領補缺選擧結果

廿五日行われた領補欠選擧結果は次の通りで四名とも進歩保守黨候補が當選した

▽ハウイ・ミーカー（オンタリオ州ワタルー・サウス）▽アンガス・マクレーン（プリンス・エドワード島クインス）▽ワルター・デンスモア（マニトバ州ブランドン）▽ゴードン・チャーチル（ウイニペッグ・サウスセンター）

Alberta JCCA All-Stars To Play Exhibition July 1

COALDALE, Alta. — As previously reported, the newly-organized Recreation Committee is embarking on a plan to organize a Japanese All-Star Baseball team to enter a "hakujin" league.

As a step in that direction, the Committee has selected the prospective all-star players from the Alberta JCCA Baseball League and other Southern Alberta leagues to engage the Lethbridge Cubs of the Southern Alberta "Big Five" League, in an exhibition double-header on Sunday, July 1, at Henderson Stadium in Lethbridge, starting at 2 p.m.

The All-Star team will be managed by the directors of the Alberta JCCA Baseball League, Jim Ikebuchi and Tak Katakami.

The following players have been tentatively selected to make up the roster of the All-Stars.

Pitchers.

Shimpo Kimoto, formerly of the Coleman Cubs, now star pitcher for the perennial Southern Alberta champions, the Lethbridge Miners, Art Oshiro, once with the Iron Spring team of the Sugar Beet League, now hurling for Vauxhall in the Dry Belt Intermediate League, Kiyo Moriyama of the Picture Butte Bluebirds of the JCCA League, Sid Saga, of Magrath Evacs who pitched the team to the 1950 Sugar Beet championship, Jack Ohno, of the Taber Club in the JCCA League and Min Fujimoto, formerly of Raymond Bussei and now of Rainier.

Catchers.

Yagi Kaga, of Taber Firemen of the Big Five and Mike Kano, a veteran with the Taber Baseball Club.

Infielders.

Push Matsuyima, another veteran ex-Coaldale Bussei, now P. B. Bluebirds and S. Kitagawa of Raymond Bussei, first base.

Yo Nishimura, Taber Firemen, and Y. Kunimoto, Magrath Evacs, second base.

Yosh Matsumoto, another vet formerly with Coaldale Bussei and P. Fujimoto, ex-Raymond Bussei at Rainier, third base.

Mush Uyesugi, Taber Firemen, shortstop.

Outfielders.

Ken Tsujiura, ex-Coaldale Bussei, now P. B. Bluebirds, Mace Oshiro, Bluebirds, Sam Mikada, Magrath Evacs, S. Karaki, and M. Kitagawa, both of Raymond Bussei.

Yamada Climbs After Slow Start

After opening the season with three successive defeats, Yamada Studio softballers in the Intermediate League have sorted themselves out and have regained ground by taking three games in a row. With a record of three and three, the cameramen are tied for second place.

In their last victory, Maw Mori with a homer and two singles batting across four runs led the attack which accounted for a 9-7 win over Toronto Television. Defensively, Freddie Tanaka out in the centre gardens played heads up ball. L. Cole and Tak Hayashida formed the battery.

One of the encouraging features of the Yamada team is the superb pitching of Mits Tanaka. In their second victory, when they thoroughly routed a previously undefeated team, the CPR Royals 25-6, Tanaka hurled six-hit ball while allowing only two walks.

Their next assignment is scheduled for Thursday, June 28 against Toronto Television whom they meet at Bellwoods Park starting from 8:45 p.m.

Yamada Studios play twice weekly on Tuesdays and Thursdays evenings.

Flyweight Champ Fights Two Japanese Titlists

OSAKA, Japan — World flyweight champion Dado Marino fought to a 10-round draw with Japanese featherweight titlist Hideo Goto in a non-title fight before a crowd of 15,000 recently.

In Marino's first fight in Japan two weeks previously, he decisioned Japan's flyweight champion Yoshio Shirai in a non-title bout.

DADO WINS AGAIN

TOKYO — Dado Marino this week scored a knockout over Hiroshi Horiguchi in the eighth round of a ten round scheduled bout.

Veteran Player Cops Court Tourney

A supposedly over-the-hill Nisei tennis player stroked his way through a series of strong and young opponents to take the Trinity Park men's singles championship over the week-end. Tommy Iwasaki, a veteran who was copping titles in Nippon Tennis Club tournaments in Vancouver 15 years ago, after being down 4-0 in the opening set, swept six straight games, then went on to coast in over Tom Nobuoka 6-4, 6-4.

Participating in Nisei tournaments in Toronto for the past few seasons, Iwasaki, although he was able to reach the later rounds, did not fare well against tougher opponents. However, in winning the Trinity courts tourney, he won over these same players who had stymied him in the past.

In the quarter-finals he routed 1950 Toronto Nisei open champion Johnny Tanaka in two sets, while in the semis he turned back Frank Matsui also in two straight. Only in the first round was he extended to three sets, when Mossy Mitsui, a comparative newcomer, gave him the longest struggle.

The Trinity Park tourney was held to determine the players who would represent Trinity in a Toronto-wide public court tournament to be held at the Toronto Tennis Court in mid-July. The quartet who reached the semis at each public court will play in the tourney. Cleanermen Oust Robbies From Top Rung, Win 14-3

In the feature game of the week in the Toronto Sunday Nisei Baseball League's triple bill, Robbies and Best Cleaners squared off in the game which was to break the tie for first place with the nod going to Best Cleaners who rolled on to their fourth win in a row with a 14-3 lambasting of their opponents to gain sole possession.

In the game at Riverdale Park, Best went on a rampage in the fifth inning when the roof fell in on Robbies' Monk Nakama who absorbed his first loss. Eight errors committed by the loose-playing losers did not help their cause any. Winning pitcher was Tucker Uchikura who relieved Harold Miwa in the fourth, and with the addition of last year's ace, Best Cleaners look more potent than ever.

Elmer Harafuji with two hits and Toki Kamino with a 2-run triple were best for Best while Seiji Takata got two hits for the losers.

Also performing heroics for the winners was Terry Shiga who hit a 2-run single. Roy Inamoto got two hits for Busseis. Bob Maeda who went the route for Pearl's was the winning pitcher while Tom Nagano who matched Maeda's four-hitter was the hardluck loser.

Diminutive Dave Sakamoto's masterful 2-hit hurling paved the way for TNT's 2-0 shutout over Hurricanes as the youthful hurler curbed his wildness in walking eight batters by pitching sound ball. The whizz-kids, the youngest team in the league, also gave him flawless support on the field.

BEST CLEANERS LEAD INTERMEDIATE LOOP

Best Cleaners moved into first place in the Toronto Intermediate "A" Baseball League with a record of three wins, one loss, and one tie, when they tied 7-7 and won 13-6 in their recent games.

On Fri., June 15, the Best Cleaners gave their poorest display of the season when they played a 7-7 stalemate with Toppers. The Nisei team salvaged the tie when trailing 6-7 in the last inning. Hiro Kawaguchi drove home Bob Ohashi with the tying run with a long fly to right field.

Batteries were Dick Aoki, Basil Cormier in the fifth, and Bill Aoki behind the plate.

Under a new manager in Frank Nakamura, a former Asahi star, the Cleanermen moved into top place as they rapped Defoe Motors 13-6 on June 18, behind the 7-hit pitching of Basil Cormier who struck out 13 men. The game was called at the end of the sixth inning because of darkness.

Hiro Kawaguchi, Bob Ohashi, and Toki Kamino led the attack with two hits apiece.

Next games for Best Cleaners will be played on Friday night and Sat. afternoon starting at 2:30 p.m., both at Talbot Park, Leaside.

Juniors Win Again

Although restricted by two blows, Western Juniors made the best of the shortage and taking advantage of opposition miscues, eked out a 3-2 win over West Yorks, their toughest foe in the West Toronto Junior League. Carl Uchikura hurled the Sunday win with Ken Ikeda mopping up, with the former allowing all seven hits.

Vancouver Nisei Lose To Longshoremen, 8-6

VANCOUVER — Although the Longshoremen touched pitcher George Fukuyama for only five hits, they produced an 8-6 win over the Vancouver Nisei in a recent Industrial Baseball League fixture at the Powell Grounds.

All the scoring was tabulated in the last three innings when Longshoremen tallied eight runs in the fifth and sixth, and the Nisei behind 5-8 in the last inning countered with one run to make the score closer.

The Nisei collected five hits off the offerings of Bud Bailey with Sakamoto, Mukai, Kitagawa, Tabata, and Oikawa each registering singletons with the latter driving in three runs. Ten Nisei went down via the strike-out route while Fukuyama whiffed three. The Nisei were up in one department, however, when they rang up five base thefts to Longshoremen's one.

"I owe them an obligation which I am trying to repay. I feel that they deserve a kind word for they served at a time where there was a strong—yes, even hysterical—suspicion against them."

Honolulu Nisei Girl Back from South Seas

HONOLULU, T. H. — A Honolulu nutritionist was back from adventures in seldom-visited islands of the Marshall group in the far Pacific.

Miss Mary Murai returned from a nutrition survey of diets of natives of the Marshalls for the U.S. Navy's Office of Naval Research and the Pacific science board of National Research Council. She brought back samples of Marshallese food which is to be given chemical analysis.

While in the Marshalls, she visited the many islands and scattered atolls, many of which have rarely been visited. Many of the atolls had to be reached by wading ashore or being carried on the backs of natives.

She accomplished her studies with the use of English or Japanese, one or the other being spoken by someone in most of the villages, as well as with a smattering of Marshallese which she picked up on her travels.
